Details Information about course to publish

Short description of the course (main aim, relevance, broad content to be covered)	The purpose of the course is to learn how to recognize the competence of a trainee working in a supported non-formal coaching environment by comparing his/her competence demonstration with the criteria for a vocational upper secondary qualification. The result will then be a certificate of competence. Second purpose of this course is to progress from there towards to competence assessment and finally to the official diploma of the demonstrated competence of a trainee.
